The prices quoted do not include the statutory German sales tax and, if applicable, statutory foreign taxes (e.g. VAT, sales tax) on the services of the implementing company to the exhibitor. The participation fees only cover part of the total costs of the services. The obligation to pay 100% of the stated total costs arises with this registration. This amount is due upon receipt of a corresponding down payment invoice. The amount stated in the down payment must be transferred to the account specified in the down payment invoice. Upon allocation of the space, the obligation to pay the remaining amount arises. This is due immediately upon receipt of the final invoice. The amount shown on the final invoice must be transferred to the account specified on the final invoice.

The cost calculation is based on your following declaration of double funding or participation by the public sector:

- We will not receive any further public funds from project funding for participation in this trade fair.
- Including this registration, we have not participated in the German joint stand at this trade fair more than four times since July 2021.
- We receive institutional funding from public funds.
- Our company is a federal, state or local authority, state funding institute or other legal entity under public law.

Waiving individual company specific or general services shall not constitute a claim for a reduction of the participation fee. Under no circumstances may uniform design elements be foregone.

The prices quoted do not include the statutory German sales tax and, if applicable, statutory foreign taxes (e.g. VAT, sales tax) on the services of the implementing company to the exhibitor. The participation fees only cover part of the total costs of the services. The obligation to pay 100% of the stated total costs arises with this registration. This amount is due upon receipt of a corresponding down payment invoice. The amount stated in the down payment must be transferred to the account specified in the down payment invoice. Upon allocation of the space, the obligation to pay the remaining amount arises. This is due immediately upon receipt of the final invoice. The amount shown on the final invoice must be transferred to the account specified on the final invoice.

The cost calculation is based on your following declaration of double funding or participation by the public sector:

- We will not receive any further public funds from project funding for participation in this trade fair.
- Including this registration, we have not participated in the German joint stand at this trade fair more than four times since July 2021.
- We receive institutional funding from public funds.
- Our company is a federal, state or local authority, state funding institute or other legal entity under public law.

Waiving individual company specific or general services shall not constitute a claim for a reduction of the participation fee. Under no circumstances may uniform design elements be foregone.
